

INTELLIGENT OFFICE OPENS FAIRFAX LOCATION

Offers Full-Service Virtual Officing and Communications Solutions

FAIRFAX, Va., November 24, 2008 – Intelligent Office of Fairfax, part of the Intelligent Office network that spans North America, today announced the December 1 opening of its location here to serve the needs of Northern Virginia enterprises that require a Class A office environment with professional reception services, administrative support, leading technology/communications, and access to more than 50 locations in the United States and Canada.

Intelligent Office serves the needs of the dynamic Northern Virginia business community, including firms in the technology arena and the government and nonprofit sectors.

“The entrepreneurial spirit that pervades Northern Virginia means that enterprises are growing and new businesses and nonprofits are being incorporated regularly,” said Silvia L. Zuniga, Intelligent Office of Fairfax. “Intelligent Office is here to provide the furnished, Class A office space and supporting amenities these organizations need.”

Located on Random Hills Drive near Waples Mill Road, just off Route 50 in Fairfax City, Intelligent Office of Fairfax is situated to serve the needs of the Northern Virginia technology community as well as organizations that work with county, state, and federal government agencies. The location offers 18 private, furnished offices, 15 with windows, plus three conference rooms, kitchen/break room, fitness center, and more.

Intelligent Office will host a grand opening wine-tasting reception on Tuesday, December 2, from 5-8 p.m. to welcome area business leaders and showcase its décor and amenities. To be included on the guest list, contact Zuniga at 703-225-3300 or silviaz@intelligentoffice.com.
